Your Trading Edge Masterclass Summary

Outstanding! You're one of the few that actually makes it to the end of a program! I'm impressed by your commitment.

I hope you got one of the main points that I repeated throughout this program; you are what you repeatedly do. Not only through the Strategy Development cycle, but also through your daily habits. Once you begin to focus on your One Thing and sharpen your edge into the tip of the spear, you will be unstoppable.

Let's check your progress to this point:

- ☐ Do you understand how and why most Retail traders lose money?
- ☐ Do you know where you are on Yoder's Trader Progression?
- ☐ Have you identified what your "One Thing" strategy is?
- ☐ Do you understand what the "trading edge" is behind your "One Thing" strategy?
- ☐ Have you built your Business Plan?
- ☐ Have you created a Trading Plan?
- ☐ What trading system are you using for your One Thing? Have you defined it in your Trading Plan?
- ☐ Have you created a Tracking System for your strategy?
- ☐ Have you investigated any of the resources to work on your Success Mindset?
- ☐ Have you investigated any of the resources to improve your Success Habits?

You might not have all of those items in place yet, and perhaps you've only been able to check off a few boxes. That's OK, everyone has to start somewhere. Now that you've been through the entire program top to bottom and have read it for awareness, try going through this program again, this time for understanding.

It's my hope that this program spurs you to successful habits, not only in your trading career, but also your own personal life. They are all connected.

Please let me know how I can help going forward, and thanks for taking these first steps in your journey with me.
